Stories

Modern Classic

It was their love of classic movies and modern architecture that brought Matt and Brooke together. The couple were looking to combine her vintage style with his city chic vibe in every aspect of their celebration – including the menu. Chef Stewart Woodman worked with Matt and Brooke to create a menu that embodied their passion for classic elegance with a modern twist for their first dinner party as man and wife.

BUTLER-PASSED HORS D'OEUVRES

walnut streusel Wedding Cake

Local Love

Tom and Ashlee met at the U of M where they eat, sleep and breathe all things Minnesotan, from Gopher hockey games to lake life to the thriving music scene. It was important to them to represent all they cherish about the land of 10,000 lakes on their wedding day. To tie in local character of a live band from St. Paul and North Shore craft beers, their menu showcased the local flavor and bounty of the Twin cities food scene.

PAIRINGS STATION

Sliders perfectly paired with local craft beers in shooter glasses

CHARCUTERIE DISPLAY

Including Red Table meats and Caves of Faribault cheeses

DINNER TABLE

Wild rice soup
Classic Iceberg wedge with red onions, and Bushel Boy tomatoes
Fried walleye with tartar sauce
Locally raised, cage free chicken breast, with roasted Honeycrisp apple jus
Green bean casserole
Tater tot hot dish

DESSERT

Warm State Fair chocolate chip cookies with milk
Assorted mini desserts
